

☐ 0 copies
☐ 1 copies

Figure 1 consists of six grayscale images arranged in a 2x3 grid. The top row shows the original image (a) and its Fourier transform (b). The bottom row shows the original image with a horizontal line removed (c) and its Fourier transform (d). The images are labeled (a) through (f) in the bottom right corner of each panel.

